

Cook County
North Suburban

NAMI CCNS Cordially Invites You To:

“What Services Are Needed to Keep People with Mental Illness Out of the Legal System?”

Meet Mark Heyrman, Clinical Professor of Law, University of Chicago, and member of the mental health committees of the Chicago Bar Association and the Illinois State Bar Association. Mark teaches students litigation and legislative advocacy on behalf of persons with mental illness and is active in numerous mental health organizations. Mark will answer your questions.

Cook County Jail

Monday, September 14, 7:00 – 8:30 pm, in Glenview

This program is free and open to the public at the

Midwest Care Center, Administration Building,
2050 Claire Ct, Glenview 60025

Directions: Take Willow Rd to Ravine Way, which is west of Waukegan Rd and east of Patriot. Ravine Way is at the entrance of North Shore Corporate Park. Turn south on Ravine and then left onto Claire Court. Midwest Center is at the very end of Claire Court, which is a winding road.

NAMI CCNS, the National Alliance on Mental Illness, Cook County North Suburban, is a local affiliate of NAMI, the Nation's Voice on Mental Illness.

For additional information, please call us at 847-716-2252

or visit us at www.namiccns.org