NAMI CCNS Cordially Invites You To:

Pride and Erasing the Stigma of Mental Illness

Patrick W. Corrigan is a Distinguished Professor of Psychology at the Illinois Institute of Technology. His research examines psychiatric disability and the impact of stigma on recovery and rehabilitation.

Dr. Corrigan has authored or edited more than a dozen books – most recently, The Stigma of Disease and Disability: Understanding Causes and Overcoming Injustices, and Coming Out Proud to Erase the Stigma of Mental Illness: Stories and Essays of Solidarity.

With the support of the NIMH-funded Center on Adherence and Self-Determination, Dr. Corrigan and his team have developed the Coming Out Proud program, which is aimed at eliminating the self-stigma of mental illness.

Monday, January 25, 7:30 – 9:00 pm,
